

FORWARD

To the future of Arapahoe High; that the classes hereafter, may always seek to do their utmost in maintaining a good standard of achievement and sustain a school to be proud of, we, the senior class, dedicate this 1940 Iagoo.

We are striving to make a thorough journal, giving an accurate account of the activities and accomplishments of the year ending 1940. May the succeeding classes continue the Annual, and carry on the torch of knowledge!

BOARD OF EDUCATION

A great deal of credit for the success of our school year must be given to the board of Education. They are to be complimented highly on their cooperation with the faculty members.

A new feature in their administration this year was the Board of Education-Faculty Dinner, held during Education Week, last fall. The members of the Board, their wives, the faculty members, and their wives were present. The out-of-town guest-speaker was Superintendent Johnson of the Holdrege

CAMPUS

The Arapahoe Public School campus is a beautiful foreground to the modern school building. A broad expanse of lawn leads up to the front of the buildings, furnishing an excellent setting for the May festival held every spring. Annual and perennial flower beds have been placed at the four corners of the lawn, and a variety of trees provides shade and bushes serve as foundation plants and line the main walk leading to the Senior High Building.

A playground to the east of the building is furnished with a slippery-slide, merry-go-round, and swings. Here also is an excellent athletic field which brings people from all over Southwestern Nebraska to attend football games and track meets.

The Senior High building is a very modern building, containing the home economics department, typing laboratory, and library in addition to numerous classrooms. Steel lockers in the halls provide protection for the books and valuables of the students. A fine gymnasium-auditorium is used for the been used for many tournaments by players from all over this section of the state.

The Junior High Building houses the grades from the kindergarten through the ninth. The music room and manual training shop is in the annex beyond the

The campus is indeed one of which we can be immensely proud, as it is one of the finest in the school year.

COURSES

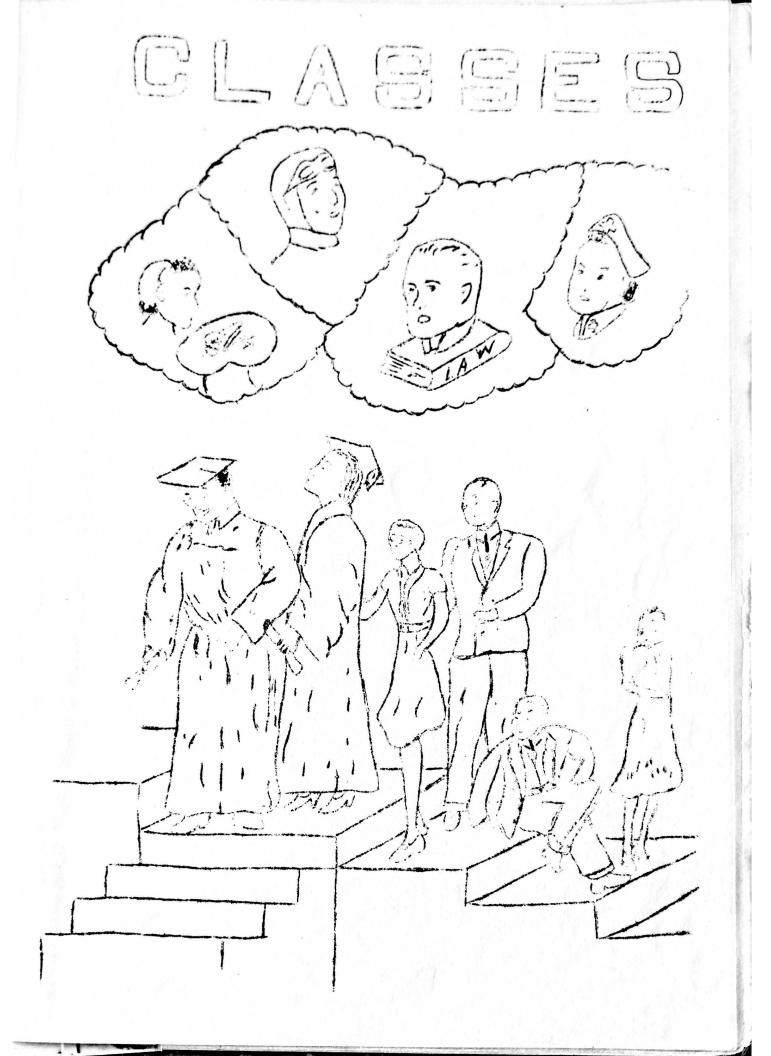

The college preparatory College Preparatory: course is offered for students interested in attending college. The principle subjects offered in this course, Latin, English, and the social and physical sciences, are also cultural subjects. Normal Training: A student planning to teach should take the normal training course. Upon completing the course a student is prepared to obtain a third-grade teaching certificate. In this course the student reviews the subjects studied in the grades and the importance of character education. The professional training class teaches one correct teaching procedure. This course, taken by seven seniors, is a very valuable course.

commercial: The commercial course aids a student planning to enter the business world. It prepares a student for stenography, secretarial jobs, or general office work. The bookkeeping, typing, and shorthand is extremely helpful in any line of business. This year eight people were graduated from this course.

Trade Training: This course gives a student a chance to learn a definite trade by actual experience. The trade training course is comparatively new and has been added to the curriculum of only a few schools in Nebraska; however, it is spreading very rapidly throughout the state. Four students completed the course in Arapahoe this year.

General Course: The general course is for the student who is undecided as to what he intends to do after graduation. In this course there is a wide number of electives. One can get a background for any line of work by choosing subjects from the other courses. One senior enrolled and completed the requirements of this course.

Coach Roger M. Howard took the task of football coach in Arapahoe two years ago. Last year he made a good snowing as he won about half of his games. This year due to injuries and lack of experienced players, he had difficulty in forming a good team. Although he worked under difficulty these last two years, he hopes to have a winning team next year.

The 1940 Arapahoe Basketball season was one of the most interesting seasons in the past decade. The team maintained a 50% average, winning nine and losing nine games.

Arapahoe was honored in being hosts to the Class B Tournament and the Furnas County Tournament. The sclection of the place for the tournament is made by the schools participating and shows the high standing of the Arapahoe school.

1939----1940----

The season opened December 12th with the Indianola floor Indianola floor. The Indianola securacy on hitting the hoop.

The following week December 19th, found Arapahoo host to Elwood. After an exciting game, the Indians proved their superiority to the tune of 23.

The next contest, January 5th, netted Arapahoe a victory over Red Willow. The home boys got off to a good start and never once did the Red Willow team even as much as equal our score. The final quarter ended with the score 29-22.

The "Blue and White" were guests of Franklin on January 3rd. The hard battle gave Arapahoe the long end of the stick; the score was 18-17.

On January 9th the Indians defeated Loomis with a great margin. Arapahoe chalked up 29 While

The Arapahoe boys traveled to Holbrook on January 12th and brought home the second defeat of the marked up 29.

Arapahoe played a close and fast game with Beaver City on January 16th. Again Arapahoe lacked those few points and were defeated 28-21.

The Arapahoe five were host to Orleans, January 19th, again the Indians won with a score 37-20.

----IAGOO----IAGOO-----

On the 23rd of January Edison flew her colors over the Blue and White. Hays dropped two lucky ones through in the last minutes of the game, to make the score of 21-17.

On January 30th, the Indians brought home the scalp of Alma. Arapahoe scored 19 points to Alma!s 12.

Handicapped by the narrow dark floor, January 26, the Indians bowed to Oxford. The Cardinals counted 36 to Arapahoe's 26.

On February 2nd the Indians came home from Bertrand with a score of 40-29, Bertrand losing.

The first night of the county tournament, which was staged at Arapahoe February 8th, found the home five battling with Oxford. The Indians romped the Cardinals 51-36 but were defeated by Beaver City the following evening.

February 13th found Arapahoe host to Cambridge, the Furnas County champs. This game was a thriller though we lost the game.

On February 17th Arapahoe dropped one to Minden on the home floor. The final score was 25-19.

The last scheduled game was February 20th with Wilsonville on the Wilsonville floor. The Indians played their last winning game 23-21.

TRACK

Arapahoe has one of the best tracks in Southwest Nebraska. The central location, good field and hospitality extended teams and visitors account for the popularity of Arapahoe as a track center.

Arapahoe had track men entering every event offered in the track meets; Max Girch, the outstanding track man this year, tied for second and third in the finals of the State Track Meet.

The local track season was opened with a traingular meet held, April 5, with Beaver City, and Edison participating. Arapahoe placed second with 46 5/6 points.

On April 12, Arapahoe was host to the Furnas County Track Meet. Max Girch was an outstanding scorer, and the local team placed fourth with 27 points.

The Annual Invitational Track Meet was held, April 26, on the Arapahoe track field. Twenty-three towns took part in this meet, which was one of the largest in this part of the state. Arapahoe took seventh place in this meet.

A number of Arapahoe track men entered the Republican Valley Track Meet at Minden, May 1. Arapahoe earned 17 points and placed fifth.

The Mid-Valley Track Meet, held May 3, found Arapahoe host to ten visiting towns. Arapahoe was fourth, having earned 15 points.

Bosides these large track meets the local tracksters entered several dual meets with Oxford, Cambridge, and Orleans on their own track field.

Max Girch-pole vault, high hurdles, high jump

Max did excellent track work this year. He has one year ahead of him in which he will do more.

Sailor Stoddard-440, relay

The forty-two piece Arapahoe High School Band, in its striking blue and white costumes, was the most popular music group in school. Under the direction of Mr. Geiger, music instructor, it received a superior rating at the District Music Contest at McGook. The judges complimented the band on their excellent appearance and fine talent.

The beauty of the band in marching was shown when the band performed at football games and per rallies. The band also played at basketball games and track meets and at several city functions.

The band was entered at the music festival at Edison; several band members participated in the music clinic at Holdrege, and played in the mass band at the Teachers' Convention.

From the band a number of members entered the District Music Contest as instrumental soloists. Paul Light, cornetist, received a superior rating, and the cornet quartette also was rated superior.

Because there are so many young members in the band, the future Arapahoe band promises to be as successful as the present.

MIXED CHORUS

Members of this group are selected by Mr. Geiger from the Boys! and Girls! Glee Clubs; thus the group is composed of the best vocalists in the music department.

The Mixed Chorus participated in one local concert, sang at the Edison Music Festival, and entered the District Music Contest at McCook.

The Mixed Chorus was well received at their appearances and presented themselves as a very well-organized group of singers.

Two student councilers are chosen by the members of each class in the senior high. The purpose of the council is to help solve the problems of the students. Any one wishing to suggest more and better ideas for school administration appeals to a student council member. It is then considered in one of the weekly council meetings.

In 1939-40 the council checked lockers each week; ushered; and operated the check room at school activities. They also sponsored the biweekly convocations for the junior and senior high assemblies.

The "A" Club was organized to stimulate school spirit, give the boys a desire to participate in athletics, and to create a close relationship among the lettermen. To be a member of the "A" Club, a student must have earned a letter in one of the three major sports--football, basketball, or track.

Ervin Petermann, momber of the "A" Club was awarded the annual medal for athletics.

Among the accomplishments of the "A"Club was the sponsoring of a trip for the football team. The boys attended the Nebraska-Oklahoma football game.

The Inter-class Basketball Tournament and Interclass Track Meet were sponsored by the "A" Club. In the basketball tournament the Seniors defeated the Sophomores and the Juniors the Freshmen in the first games. However, in the second game the Juniors won over the Seniors by the small margin of 36-34. In the Inter-class Track meet the Juniors again took the class championship with $70\frac{1}{2}$ points.

PUBLICATIONS

The Tomahawk

This paper is published every week as a part the local weekly newspaper in a special section devoted to school news.

It has been the aim and effort of the Senior English Class, and their faculty advisor, Mr. Mitchell, to make the news interesting as well as informative. All the school events and functions are reported each week to acquaint the public with the general activity of the school.

The Tomahawk staff, with Dorothea Schabacker as editor, wishes to express its appreciation and thanks to the faculty, student body, and administration for their kind cooperation in making this paper a success.

The Totem Pole

The Totem Pole, a school paper compiled and mimeographed by the Junior Class, was received with enthusiasm by the school this year.

The articles were written as a project in the Junior English Class. A great deal of credit is due the Editors, Merilyn Cox and Eleanor Hahn, and the faculty advisor, Mr. Howard.

This paper was issued for the purpose of improving the school and acquainting the students tions.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Juniors, Seniors, and faculty arrived on a scene of old Mexico Saturday evening, April 27. It was the Junior Senior banquet, held in the Methodist Church basement.

The banquet hall was decorated in red, blue and green streamers; cactus plants lined the walls. The tables were arranged to form a triangle, in the center of which was a large group of plants and center of which was a large group of plants and Mexican figures. At one end of the hall the hosts had constructed a small patio with Mexican draperies and a lounge.

In the center of each table was a large tray containing grapefruit, oranges, and candy bars wrapped in cellophane paper. The favors were small Mexican hats of china in which were peanuts and licorice.

The program also was carried out in the Mexican theme. Nina Lindsey was a very able toastmistress, introducing the various numbers on the program:

MAY FETE

The ninth annual May Festival was held Friday evening, May 3, on the Arapahoe High School Campus evening, a rural school track meet, sponsored by the Arapahoe School.

The evening's entertainment began at seven or clock with a band concert followed by music by the mixed Chorus and Boys' Octet.

The Daisy Chain, composed of girls selected from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes formed an aisle, through which the twelve boy and girl attendants marched followed by the May Queen, Dorothy Johnson, the Prince, Ervin Petermann, and their escorts. Upon reaching the throne the attendants were seated on both sides of the throne, and the Queen's attendant, Georgena Andrews, crowned her, and Richard Proud, attendant to the prince, presented him with his scepter.

A fete of dancing in costume was presented before the throne. The fete was based on the theme "In an Old Dutch Garden" and was given by the Arapahoe Grade School students.

After the recessional Mr. Mitchell awarded medals given each year to senior class members for merit. Richard Proud received the dramatics award; Max Slife, the activities award; Ervin Petermann, the athletic award; Elsa Nicholson, the citizenship award; Erna Roesler, the music award; and, Dorothea awards are based on accomplishments during the sethree-year accomplishment.

SNEAK DAY

Twenty-four seniors left Arapahoe at 6:00 Monday morning May 6. They were traveling to Lincoln, for it was Sneak Day.

Upon arrival at Lincoln they were directed to the Journal Building. The guide, ssigned them by the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, took them through all rooms and divisions of the Journal Printing Co.

This guide then led them through the University of Nebraska. He showed them the beautiful large campus, the Administration Building, the Stadium, the Coliscum and its trophy room, and some of the rooms in Morrill Hall.

After dinner the group was taken through the Capital. They went up to the tower, into certain of the officers' rooms, and through the museum in the basement.

The rest of the day was spent visiting the tencent stores and attending the show, "Rebecca," taken from the book written by Daphne Du Maurier.

By 12:00 the entire group had returned to Arapahoe, having learned and seen many educational and interesting things.

CLASS POEM

Traveling Onward

And now that our school days are o'er, And life's hard path we must tread; We face its ruts, its crooks and turns, With the will to forge ahead.

Together we have weathered four long years, But our cares and our joys shall remain In our hearts, our souls and our memories dear; No matter what paths we maintain.

Though tomorrow we get to a world torn by fear,

And tomorrow we face the unknown,

We're going with courage and hearts filled with hope-

The seed that our youth has sown.

And as we step o'cr
the threshold of the morrow,
Our new found wings we will try;
Saying "Hello" to this world,
we also will say
Farewell to Arapahoe High.

CLASS SONG

Tune--At The Balalaika

In Arapahoe High School
Where twenty-four students

We wish them lots of success on their way.
Wherever they may 30.

After they are gone
They never will forget a teacher's call
For sliding down bannisters or loafing in the hall
The memory will live on.

In the Arapahoe High School
They are through and have big plans ahead.
And after years we hope it will be said
They are good students through life.

Now we bid you adieu
Though we are sorry that we are through
With everything we love in this school
So fare thee well.

CLASS WILL

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT. WE, THE SENIOR CLASS OF THE ARAPAHOE HIGH SCHOOL 1940, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this our last will and testament, in manner and form as follows:

We make the following bequeaths:

Wayne Barnes--Wayne gives his industriousness to Cletus Murdoch. Now Cletus won't have so much time to talk to Eileen.

Georgena Andrews-Georgena leaves her out-of-town boy friends to Virginia Brown. Oxford is only 15 miles away, Virginia.

Mr. Howard -- Mr. Howard leaves his ability to keep secrets to Mr. Geiger.

Marjorie Ems-Marjorie Leaves her faithfulness to Eleanora Krumme. Maybe it will be easier for you to make up your mind now, Eleanora.

Berniece Thomas--Berniece leaves her bashfulness to Velma Johnson. This should give you just the right amount of courage, Velma.

Margaret Toomey --- Margaret gives her helpful ways to Sara Marie Stearns.

Sailor Stoddard--Sailor wills his argumentativeness to Max Girch. Don't get tough Max, we know you've got the muscle.

Harriett Snyder---Harriet wills her ear for gossip to Pearl Fahnholz, who will now be able to keep the class well informed of the news events almost before they happen.

Max Slife--Max leaves his "date-getting" ability to Bill Harrington. Be careful Harold, and keep an eye on Doris.

Dorothea Schabacker---Dorothea leaves her affectionate ways to Rhoda Belle Sims.

Erna Roesler---Clarence Schmidt receives Erna's Latin-getting ability.. For particulars see Erna.

Leota Roepke---Leota leaves her knowledge We warn you Arva, use thor Leota Roepke---Deoug. We warn you Arva, use of flirting to Arva McCoy. We warn you Arva, use this with modulation.

Ervin Petermann--"Gus" leaves his athletic abil. Ervin Petermann- out abil-ity to Neal Lindsey. Your name will surely go down in the hall of fame now, Neal.

Irenc Missing --- Irene leaves her ambitious ways to Margaret Fisher. If we divided it, it may give Melvin Evans a good start next year, too.

June Learned --- June leaves her laugh to Nina Lindsey. We are sorry this had to happen to you, Nina.

Evelyn Leising---Evelyn leaves her innocent look to Velma McCollam -- not that you need it, Velma.

Eleanor Krumme---Eleanor bequeaths her frequent fits of giggles to Eileen Monter and Doris Rocsler, who will now be a great worry to the teachers.

Dorothy Johnson --- Dorothy leaves her drawing skill to Eleanor Hahn. Art will hold great attractions for you, Eleanor.

Twyla Hinz --- Twyla leaves her short dresses to

Lucy Dunlap --- Lucy gives her "fickleness" to Peggy Carpenter. Watch out, Doug, and hope for the

Ralph Hill --- Ralph leaves his aptness at playing pranks to Don Adams. Since Ralph has been forced to leave many classes carly because of those, use

CLASS HISTORY

It was in 1927 that 29 youngsters started on the first rung of their ladder under the guidance Miss Morrison. Not only was it the thrill of life time for them, but also for the teacher, who was just starting her career in teaching. Although it is generally thought that there are few worries at this young age, one of the Kindergarteners, Norma Anderson, spent much of her time crying. Of those enrolled this year none of the four who still remain in our class, June Learned, Marjorie Ems, Harriet Snyder, and Richard Proud, will reveal the cause of her daily tears. The fact that there are so many jitter-bugs in the class now may be explained by their favorite song and game that year, "Here we go round the Mulberry Bush," with Morrison pumping the wheezy old organ.

With flying banners, we scuttled across the hallway into the first grade room with Mrs. Stanfield as our teacher. This is the year we caught up on the life of Skeezix.

We then felt that we were veterans as we went into the second grade room with that smiling teacher, Miss Aronson, to greet us as we entered each Morning. Here our class started their career of acting and presented the operatta, "Cinderella." Here also we gazed in wonder at that shining ring on our teacher's left hand. Georgena Andrews became a member of the class that year, too.

In the third year our class had the pleasure of initiating another new teacher. This time it was that sweet little lady, Miss Madden. We must have started her right for she is still on the same job.

FFFFF IAGOOFSUUR IAGOOESSEE

Our long dreamed of ambitions were realized when we went up not only in grade but to the second story of the building. We initiated Miss Second who, with the assistance of Miss Finley, directed our efforts for the next three years. "Last Couple out" was the favorite game of the inseparable couple and here, too, the building of play houses was still done. Our class that year was enlarged by the rollment of Wayne Barnes.

We now marched courageously into the Junior High to face the trials and tribulations of the seventh and eighth grades. Here we met Mr. Riddlemoser, Miss Andrews and Miss Morris for our instructors. Our class gained recognition when Eleanor Curry after winning the County Spelling Contest brought Krunme, Max Slife, and Ralph Hill were enrolled at this time, and we also experienced our first class party—a never-to-be-forgotten hike. After two years of endurance Mr. Riddlemoser lost his courage and sailed away to greener pastures, and so again we initiated another teacher, Mr. Parriott, who has advanced with us.

"Look at the freshies!" "Too green to burn!"
"Look how scared they are!" "Too scared to talk!"

These remarks and others greeted us on that first day of our high school career; but we didn't let this discourage us. Through the jeers and sneers of the Sophomores and in spite of the advice and headshaking of the Seniors, we ascended the ladder of success to our present worthy station. Our burdens were enlightened by the entrance of Richard Dickmeyer, Lucy Dunlap, Dorothy Johnson, Sailor Stoddard, Dorothea Schabacker, Twyla Hinz, Evelyn Leising, Trene Missing, Ervin Petermann, Leota Roepke, Erna Roesler, Berniece Thomas, am Margaret Toomey. Here, too, we learned the real memory of sorrow when our classmate, Gloria Emrick passed away from this life.

 The next year the Freshies entered the Sophomore class with flying colors. New classmates were Nicholson joined our class this grade. Picnics and socials of a more dignified form were again profled as our sponsors. Erna Roesler, Elsa Nicholson, and Gordon Reinhold served at the Jr. and Sr. Ban-

When school started the following fall, we found that we were Juniors. This year we took a little more interest in school work than we had the pregod time under the sponsorship of Miss Craven and Parriott. The shining star this year was the proved to be a success and brought in enough money to finance the glorious Mother Goose Banquet which skating parties and socials were held this year.

Now we are Seniors, twenty four in number, which is scarcely half the group that started in 1935, but remember "Cupid" has come into our midst since then and captured several of our bunch. Others have gone to different schools, and so that accounts for our loss in number. Our Senior Class Play, "Take It Easy," enabled us to take a trip to Lincoln for Sneak Day. Together we have enjoyed the pleasures that precede graduating---Jr.-Sr. Banquet, Alumni Banquet, Class Day, etc.

The Senior class was well represented at the Kearney Scholastic Contest, Commercial Contest at Oxford, and the Music Contest at McCook. Such is the record of the Senior Class. With strong hearts and high hopes we anticipate still greater achievements in the years to come. Now Watch Us.

She informed us that she had tried her hand at interior decorating, but her interest doclined greatly when she was offered a large amount to become the bathing beauty at this resort; she accepted and here she was! Continuing our journey on into Helena, Montana we discover upon putting in a telephone call, another classmate and switchboard operator, June Learned. While talking over old times with her, we find that her school day pal and constant friend, Georgena Andrews, is about to become the wife of an Earl. And Berniece Thomas seems to have an extraordinary occupation -- she is a matron in an Institute for Crippled Children.

We wonder if we will ever find anybody that has chosen the career of marriage. Oh yes, we find ourselves back to old Nebraska, our home state, where the former Lucy Dunlap and her husband, a strange but nice chap, is progressing very nicely on a farm and have had their home blessed with three darling cherubs!

on with the next classmate. This is Max But Slife. He is established in Grand Island, Nebraska, not far from the old town, Arapahoe. Now Max does have a charming voice and could always sing, so it was not a surprise upon visiting K. M. M. J. to find him there. He informed us that he did practice to be a veterinarian, but his voice and singing became so popular that he gives all his time to radio. All this time we have not heard a thing about that ever-popular Richard Proud, but Max said that he thought Richard was a busy lawyer in New York. Well, perhaps we will meet him there. Also in New York we find our next classmate, Twyla Hinz, who has a position as gossip columnist for the New York Times. Elsa Nicholson and Twyla seem to have gotten together because Elsa is also a journalist in New York City.

Across the seas in England our poetic Sailor Stoddard (remember his sophomore jingles?) is devoting his time and efforts to further study. Perhaps our grandchildren will readabout himin literature like we used to in school, about Emerson, Whittier, and so forth. Dorothea Schabacker is still pursuing her education through books and we find pursuing but, being just one girl, is handgrasp everything bu

In Paris, France upon going to a style show I found Eleanor Krumme, that soft, brown-eyed girl, styling the most beautiful of Paris creations. Goodness! Eleanor, I always did think you were good looking. Do you have any of our girl friends! boyfriends sticking around?

Now where is Wayne Barnes? Who would believe it? He was found in Henolulu. Yes, our quiet Wayne in the biggest throng of the most beautiful Hawaiian ladies that frequent the beach. Wayne is on his vacation at present but is permanently occupied as a judge in New York. Our people seem to like New York. Accompanying Wayne, we find Erna Roesler, the nurse. It seems that Wayne has a bad case of asthma so Erna is in constant care of him.

Coming back to the States we find two girls situated in Canada. Irene, who was so intent on becoming a teacher, has fulfilled this desire and is an instructor in a high school while Harriet is handling books in a little different way. She is head librarian in a beautiful marble building in Toronto.

It seems we could not find Evelyn Leising anywhere but being Irene's best friend she informed us that Evelyn had tired of teaching after three years and had gone into nurse's training. Now she has accepted a position as a private nurse to an elderly man and they are cruising up into the Scandinavian countries.

Sonny Hill, we find in a high school in Omaha, as instructor and coach. Who would ever believe it! Evidently he thought it time to turn tables and get his turn at doing a little punishing instead of being punished.

For myself this trip I have taken as a reward for working faithfully these last five years as social research worker in the slum districts in Chicago. I have become a sort of second Jane Addams, having established a home similiar to that of Hull House.

ALUMNI BANQUET

The Alumni Association accepted twenty-four seniors into its organization at the annual banquet,

The theme of the banquet, "First-nighter," was cleverly carried out in the favors and throughout the program. The two ushers, Evelyn Irelan and Lois Upward, wore white suits and black top hats. In the center of each table was constructed a man and woman in full evening dress, flanked by bouquets of tulips and lilies of the valley in "top-hat" vases. At each place was a favor of a black top-hat, a candy cane, and a "top-hat" nut cup.

After the dinner, consisting of new potatoes, cream sauce, chicken supreme, baked corn, spring salad, rolls, pickles, and ice cream and angel food cake. Earl moore, master of ceromonies, introduced the "First-nighter" play, "The Dummy." Following the play the master of ceromonics presented the "stars" attending the "First-nighter" program. Each star was to perform, imitating the person he was representing; the stars were the new alumni members, the senior class.

The business meeting succeeded this; Arlo Lindsey was elected president; Mrs. Don Frost, vice-president and C. Vernon Evans, secretary-treasurer,
