FHA

The "78-79" year opened with a "Get Acquainted Picnic. We invited the freshman to come and learn what FHA is all about. September 27 we went to Franklin for our District Convention. Throughout the year we had a Bake Sale, a Christmas Caroling Party and lessons on Teenage Suicide and Cancer. All FHA members participated in FHA Week. Each day of FHA Week was devoted to certain activities. Pam Janssen, Shelley Schutz, Shelli Haarberg, Synoma Hays, and Regan tenBensel (the newly elected officers) attended State Leadership Conference at Lincoln on April 9-10. The FHA Installation Banquet was held April 24. The newly elected officers gave a report on State Leadership Conference and were then installed into their positions.

The Swing Choir has done some interesting things, from selling concessions to making a television debut. We taped for the Morning Show and sang live for the Noon Show. We also made our second showing at the Midland Jazz Festival.

Soloists this year were, Bret B.—2; Synoma H.—2; Bud N.—3; Shelley S.—1.

These two ladies were our girls duet for this year. They received a two rating at district music contest. They are Paula S. and Shelley S.

Boys Quartet also received a two at contest. These boys (men?) are Bret B., Mark S., (standing in for Tony M.) Allan M., and Dennis P.

The Better Half . . .

The newest singing group we added this year was the Boy's Octet. We sang as two groups at contest, we sang as a Barber shop chorus and as a Boy's ensemble. Front row (l-r) Bud N., Mark S., Paul L., Dennis P., Second row Allan M., Dennis M., John K., Bret B.,

Our piano players for this year were (l-r) Nicky L., Lisa S., and Miss Samuelson.

Our Mixed Chorus officers for this year were a good group of leaders. Under their guidance we did some very different things. Our leaders for this year were, front row Melodie W. Second row Dennis P., Ronna M.

This group of ladies were our triple trio. They are: Melanie L., Melodie W., Julie M., Renee W., Marcia C., Second row Chris G., Cindy S., Laura G., Betsy D.

Homecoming Happenings

The 1978 Homecoming Queen is Dawn Mosbarger and her attendants were Gayle Gill and Terry Noltie while Doug Snyder is the Homecoming King and his attendants were Randy Oswald and Eric Tawzer.

Darcie Mosbarger, sister of Dawn Mosbarger, had the privilege of crowning her sister as her successor as the Homecoming Queen of Arapahoe High School. Sam Oswald then crowned Doug Snyder as his successor as Homecoming King of our school.

"Two Tickets to Paradise" Is AHS Prom Theme

King Randy Oswald and Queen Gayle Gill.

Under streamers of pink, green, white, and yellow crepe paper and with main streamers of blue and silver the Arapahoe High School Junior Class presented the Class of 1979 with the annual festivities of prom.

This year's theme was "Two Tickets To Paradise" and Kandis Warner gave the opening welcome at the beginning of the evenings festivities. The response came from senior class president Ronna McCoy with Synoma Hays giving the invocation prior to the meal.

The evening meal consisted of Hamon con manazana (ham and pineapple), whipped delight, golden dew drops (corn), and malasadas (baked potato). The salad was lima salad (lime salad) with a desert of Rosado Queque (strawberry shortcake).

Servers for this year's prom were Janet Soncksen, Melodie Warner, Rhonda Fitzke, Cindy Stagemeyer, Robert Schievelbein, Mark Stagemeyer, Brian Mosbarger and Mitch Cross.

After the banquet the groups shared dancing until midnight with the annual crowning ceremony of the Prom Queen and King taking place at 11:00 p.m. Named as Queen was Gayle Gill and Randy Oswald was named King. The attendants were Terry Noltie, Donna Wendland, Brad Schutz and Eric Tawzer.

Warrioretts Have a Good Season

The Arapahoe Warriorettes volleyball team had a winning season of 8-5 under the new coach Miss Cathy Curtis. Donna Wendland was picked for first team RVL, and Norma Ziebell, Honorable Mention. The Junior Varsity team did not have as good a year, as they had a record of 0-9. Good Luck next year to the volleyball teams.

As the Freshmen leave their first year of high school they have learned a lot. Some have excelled in sports, some in academics, nevertheless they will do well in the long journey up the ladder to the year 1982. When they take up their role as a sophomore on that August morning they will look ahead with joy at the thought of 540 more days of school!

So that's how it's done?

The Junior Class has experienced another successful year at A.H.S. The Junior Class Play and candy sales helped the juniors produce a fine prom with the help of their sponsors. The music was provided by the band "Boulder". We are all looking forward to being SENIORS.

Exchange Students

Ivonne Garrido is from Chile, South America. While here she lived with the Jack Bellamy clan.

Jun Baniqued came from the Philippine Islands. During his stay here he lived with the Paul Wendland family.

Sophie Chantrier came from France to become part of the Bud DeVries family.

Once Upon a Time

Once upon a time these laughing, smiling, innocent faces belonged to the class of 1979. From walking and crawling to football and track, from reading and writing to english and algebra each one had a lifetime ahead of them, many things to learn, and hopes and dreams to be faced as high school graduates.

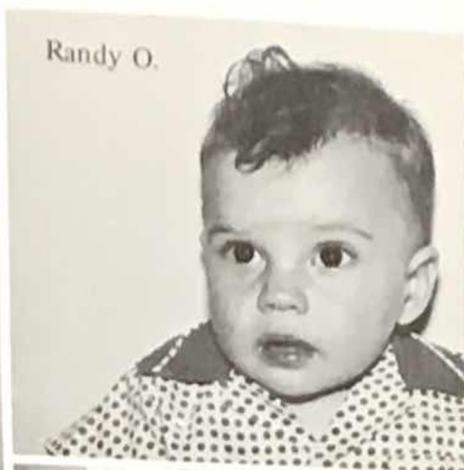

We really were cute, huh, seniors? Can you tell who each one is without looking at the names?
