Class Will

I, BRAD CARLSON, being of demented mind and worn out body, will my way with women to Matt Vonderfecht. May he use it wisely.

I will my ability to burn up any welding masks to Dirk Barnett.

I will my ability of having an extra good time at State FFA Convention to Dirk.

I will my car to anyone who wants the trouble.

I will my ability to stay out of trouble with the law to my brother, Tim.

To Mr. Sich, I will my safety habits while welding and also the old shop coat; he'll need it after he burned up his.

Last, I will my ability to be a perfect little angel to anyone who will keep up the tradition.

I, KIMBERLY JO CLARY, being of confused mind and slight body, hereby will these following unique qualities and possessions to these following persons.

To my dear sister, Amy, I will my room-my nice clean room (HA).

To Rhonda, I will my ability to jump and spike the ball to the floor--not the wall.

I will my VB and BB uniform to someone who enjoys these sports as much as I do.

To the seniors of '83, I will the ability to make enough money for their sneak.

And last of all to my classmates of '82, I will them all the luck in the future.

I DAWN EARLLEY, in celebrating my escape from this place, leave the following items. So all you lucky people take good care of my stuff.

First of all I bequeath to Mr. Sich a fireproof suit and a Smokey the Bear badge so he'll remember not to burn holes in his clothes while he is welding.

I will a paper bag to Tim Carlson. You're supposed to put it over your head and belch--so it sounds like a squeak instead of a roar.

Mr. Sturtevant can have all the leftovers from my haircut (just in case he needs spare hair.)

To the freshman class, I bequeath 12 years of education in Wilsonville. I hope it doesn't take you guys 12 years to get out of here.

And finally to the gang who went to McCook one night, I will one liter of orange liquid, your choice of the first or second time around. Believe me, it's better the first time around.

I, THERESA GRANING, being of confused mind and dilapidated body will the following things to these persons.

I will my new pens and pencils I got at the beginning of the year to anyone that will use them as much as I did.

To Sandy Glanzer, I will the heater in my car. She needs it.

Also to Sandy Glanzer, I will my ability to keep those nasty rashes off my neck.

To Dirk Barnett, I will the ability to say more than yes or no over the phone.

Last, I will a deaf ear to Mrs. Tellus so she won't have to listen to Mr. Watkins

I, STANLEY HILKER, being of pickled mind and staggering body will my ability to know when I have a flat tire to Tim Carlson.

I will my ability not to get caught doing star-skids to Dirk Barnett.

I will my ability of woman hunting to Pat Maline.

I will my aluminum can collection to Mr. Tex.

To Dale Brakhahn, I will my collection of phone numbers and addresses.

To all underclassmen, I will the good times at HHS and wish you lots of luck.

I, DOUG HINTON, being of perfect mind and perfect body and above intelligence, will these most precious possessions to the following persons.

To Robert Shepherd, my machine gun. Maybe he can figure out why we bought it, and also, to Robert, I will those wild trips to Kearney.

Gambles

Hardware, Automotive, Appliances
Sporting Goods, Furniture

CAMBRIDGE Phone 697-3611

To Mr. Watkins and Mrs. Peterson, I will back their conceit, even though they have enough.

I will those Tuesday nights in Arapahoe to Dirk Barnett and Tim Carlson.

To Jim Kent, I will my football pads and jersey. Maybe he can do better in them than I did.

To next year's freshmen, I will my height, weight, and athletic ability---I think they'll need it.

Last and not least, I will to my cousin, Jeff "Squeek" Fischer, my ability to stay out of trouble and those wild trips to McCook--remember the little blue car.

I, KARLEEN HOCKEMEYER, will the following items to the following people.

To Becky Maline and Ann Schroeder, I will my ability to play the flute.

To Jim Kent and Robert Shepherd, I will all my pens and pencils, so they won't steal someone else's to throw out the windows, hide, or break.

Also to Jim Kent, I will my brand new blue comb--he needs more practice welding.

To Sandy Glanzer, I will my bomb car. At least the passenger door opens on it.

And last, but not least, all the students remaining at Holbrook High, to them I will all my good times and great memories and the ability to make the most of your high school years.

I, STEPHAN HOFMEISTER, being of sound mind and sore body, will my talented ability to drive Mr. Watkins crazy and disturb the government class with endless political disagreements to Robert Shepherd. I'm sure he'll do a good job of it.

I leave "Flash" to the football team, hoping that they can calm him down.

I wish everybody will have just as many great times as I have had at HHS.

I, JOY JACKSON, being of warped mind and condemned body, will the following to these most fortunate persons.

To all FHA members attending summer campout, I will my monster on the tent wall.

To Robert Shepherd, I will my favorite quote, "Don't stop kissing me until I let go." Use it in good health, Shep.

To Jim Kent, I will the ability to not let people sweet talk me into getting secret information.

To Lisa Glanzer, I will my cheerleading uniform. Good luck! You'll have fun.

To Sandy Glanzer, I graciously will my most prized possession--my Tom Selleck poster. I was told I wasn't allowed to keep men in the dorms at Curtis.

Finally, I will my trips to the basement for mid-morning snacks provided by Mr. and Mrs. Meyers to anyone who gets the 9:00, 9:30, and 10:30 grumbles.

I, LEON MORRIS, will my pickup to Tim Carlson, if he can hold it down.

I will my love of government to the juniors.

I will my motorcycle to Gary Bowers so he'll stop asking how much I want for it.

I will my gun experience to Merrill Stagemeyer.

I will my ability to be one hour late at least once a week to Sandra Andrews.

I will my Saturday night fun to Mr. Watkins.

I will my hard work in school to all the teachers.

I will my ability of mechanics to Scotty Mock; he needs all he can get.

We, the terrific ten of Holbrook Class of '82, bequeath the following:

To the freshmen, we will our apathy, because the sophomores have their own.

To the sophomores, we will our perfect attendance and valid excuses from school.

To the juniors, we will our seniority and half of our senior class. Most of us might be here next year.
